Classmates and Friends
Holy Trinity High School
New Ulm, Minnesota

Dear Classmates and Friends:

At the present moment you are browsing thru our first, printed yearbook ..... the 1952 TRIKERION.

Pioneering this publication has been a valuable experience in selling, writing, and picturing. The success of our endeavor will be determined by your approval of our work and by the inspiration it will provide future classes to publish top-notch annuals.

We have found 1951-52 a gem along the trail of life, and we hope that you will find this TRIKERION a good book of parochial school memories.

THE TRIKERION IS....

a Greek name of the three-candle candelabra, representing the Holy Trinity. It was anonymously submitted in the student and alumni yearbook-naming contest, and it was voted by five judges the best name entered.

The TRIKERION is more than a name. It is a glowing symbol.

The Embossed Cover Symbol

features the Holy Trinity Candelabra. Beyond the flaming candles is a cross, the first symbol of our church. The all-inclusive circle represents one God, who has no beginning and no end. Outside of the circle, rays reflect in all directions that God is everywhere.

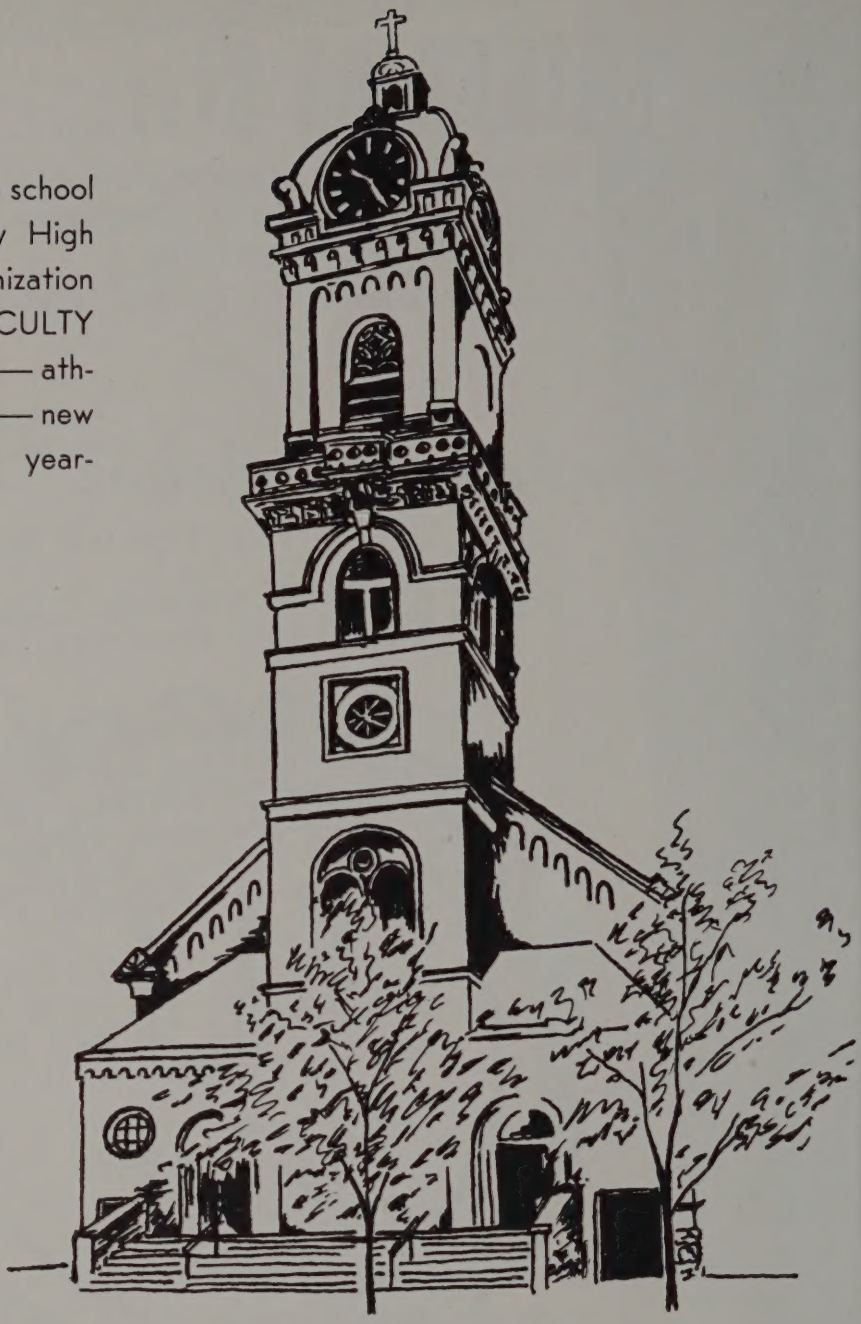
Last fall's excavation for the new high school started a new era at Holy Trinity High School—different SODALITY organization —new STUDENT COUNCIL—FACULTY meetings — separate GLEE CLUBS — athletic teams named GREYHOUNDS — new ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION — first yearbook, 1952 TRIKERION.



Your School

Holy Trinity Parish entered the field of Catholic Education at the elementary school level, building its grade schools in 1874 and 1904. The first graduating class, sixteen boys and girls, received their diplomas in 1923. The high school started in 1919.

Today's enrollment in the high school of almost two hundred and overcrowding in the grades have made it necessary to build a new, separate high school. It is another step forward for parochial training, guided in our parish since 1874 by The Sisters of Christian Charity.

His Excellency, The Most Reverend John Gregory Murray, Arch Bishop, St. Paul, Minnesota.

Priests, sisters, and laypeople comprise our faculty. Together, they strive to achieve the dual purpose of Catholic Education—instilling in youth an intelligent and successful way of life for living with their God and with their fellow man.

This year, faculty meetings were held for the first time, starting gradually the process of transferring and adapting our high school to its new building. The keynote of this move into the future was economy in helping our parish undertake its building program.

With our prayers, Father.

All of us must dig in and help.

"To Jesus Through Mary"—

This motto pointed the way for thousands of Sodalists to ask Our Lady's help in attaining their three-fold aim—sanctification of self, sanctification of neighbor, and the defense of the Church.

Reorganized on a voluntary basis, Trinity's ninety-two member Sodality worked diligently to achieve its worthy objectives. Directing the activities, Father Neudecker received good cooperation from his officers and council.

A new zeal for spiritual action helped members become better Catholics, better students, and better Americans. Their influence made this a good school year.

Well read.

Four times a year the student body eagerly awaits the distributing of our school paper, "Trinity Pen Points." A staff of twenty-five seniors gets into print the various items of school news, reports on sodality projects, students' views on school issues, alumni news, and sports and other features.

This year, the idea of a general theme has been featured in the four issues. In keeping with Trinity's building project, "Building For Greater Things" was chosen the most appropriate theme. Pictures, illustrations, and writing were used to remind us of our part in this parish project.

Sister Elma, Pen Points Advisor, devoted expert assistance in helping us to meet each deadline. Our typists were untiring in their work.

Glee Club

Boys' and girls' choral voices rang forth at Holy Trinity twice this year, shortly before Christmas and again in the spring.

Guy DeLeo organized and directed separate glee clubs, originating them from his mixed group of past years.

The public enjoyed their separate songs, ranging from the formality of the classic to the fun of novel tunes. The reorganized Barber Shop Quartette enjoyed continued success.

With six years of "A" ratings at music festivals, Holy Trinity's band snapped into its weeks of rehearsals with much enthusiasm. Heading the band is Raymond Meidl, its director for the past twenty-two years.

Each year the band presents Christmas and Spring Concerts consisting of marches, classical and popular music, and novelty numbers. Several solo and duet features are presented at each concert.

The band performs at ball games, parades on several occasions, and near the end of the year participates in the De Smet Conference Music Festival.

Bernadette, the apparently stupid peasant girl, while gathering wood for her poverty stricken parents, has an apparition of a very beautiful lady. The report of her vision comes as a last straw to her poor and hungry parents. They believe Bernadette is lying and punish her. The Mayor and Chief of Police attempt to compel her to deny the vision. The village priest is indignant when she tells him the beautiful lady asks to have a chapel built on the spot where her visions appear. The feeling becomes intense against Bernadette, and Dean Peyramale rescues her from the authorities. Bernadette remains true to her visions and enters the Sisterhood, coming under the strict discipline of Sister Vauzous. There is a magnificent finale when Sister Vauzous accepts the divinity of Bernadette's visions. The song of Bernadette has a depth of feeling and a sense of spirituality.

RESTORE CHRIST TO CHRISTMAS

SIDENT NIGHT, HOLY NIGHT.

Christmas Play

To complete last December's "Restore Christ to Christmas" atmosphere at Trinity, the Sophomore and Junior Speech class presented "The Night Was Strange." The entire high school enjoyed this inspiring presentation.

The setting of the play was Bethlehem on the first Christmas Eve. Twenty-one students clothed in gorgeous costumes of the time of Christ gave a splendid performance under the direction of Sister Lauretta.

The beautiful Nativity scene will linger long in our memories.

Holy Trinity Wins DeSmet Basketball Title

Greyhounds Dump Bethlehem In Eleventh Straight Victory

By DON BRAND

The Holy Trinity Greyhounds clinched the DeSmet conference basketball title by whipping Bethlehem Academy of Faribault 47 to 29 in a slow-moving game here last night.

This is the first cage crown for Coach Henry (Bruts) Welsch, now in his fifth year at Trinity. Trinity has now won 11 straight and there's only one game to go in the conference.

Jim Franta and Ev Christensen sparked the Greyhounds into a 11 to 3 lead, and from there on, Trinity coasted to a surprisingly easy victory.

Bethlehem used a pressing man-to-man defense and picked up fouls at the rate of one a minute in the first half. Sixteen rules infractions were called against BA before the half. Faribault had 20 fouls charged against them.

The game moved very slowly and neither team looked sharp offensively. Christensen, 5 ft 8 in dis[tance] four inches over any other player on the floor, was the only one to find the range with any consist[ency] rounds sank 17 of 33 attempts, while Bethlehem connected on only 11 and missed 14.

Ev Scores 20

Christensen was the only Trinity player in the two-digit scoring column with 20 points. Feisenmaier was next with his seven in the last period and Franta had six, all in the initial quarter. Eddie Dusbabek paced Faribault with 11 [points].

Trinity has one other non-conference tilt, a game that should be relatively easy. It is against Luther high at the Armory. Luther hooped to Trinity earlier in the season.

St. Mary's shouldn't be too tough for Trinity in that final conference game. Only this week St. Mary's was soundly beaten by the home town rival, Bird Island public high

Goodwill

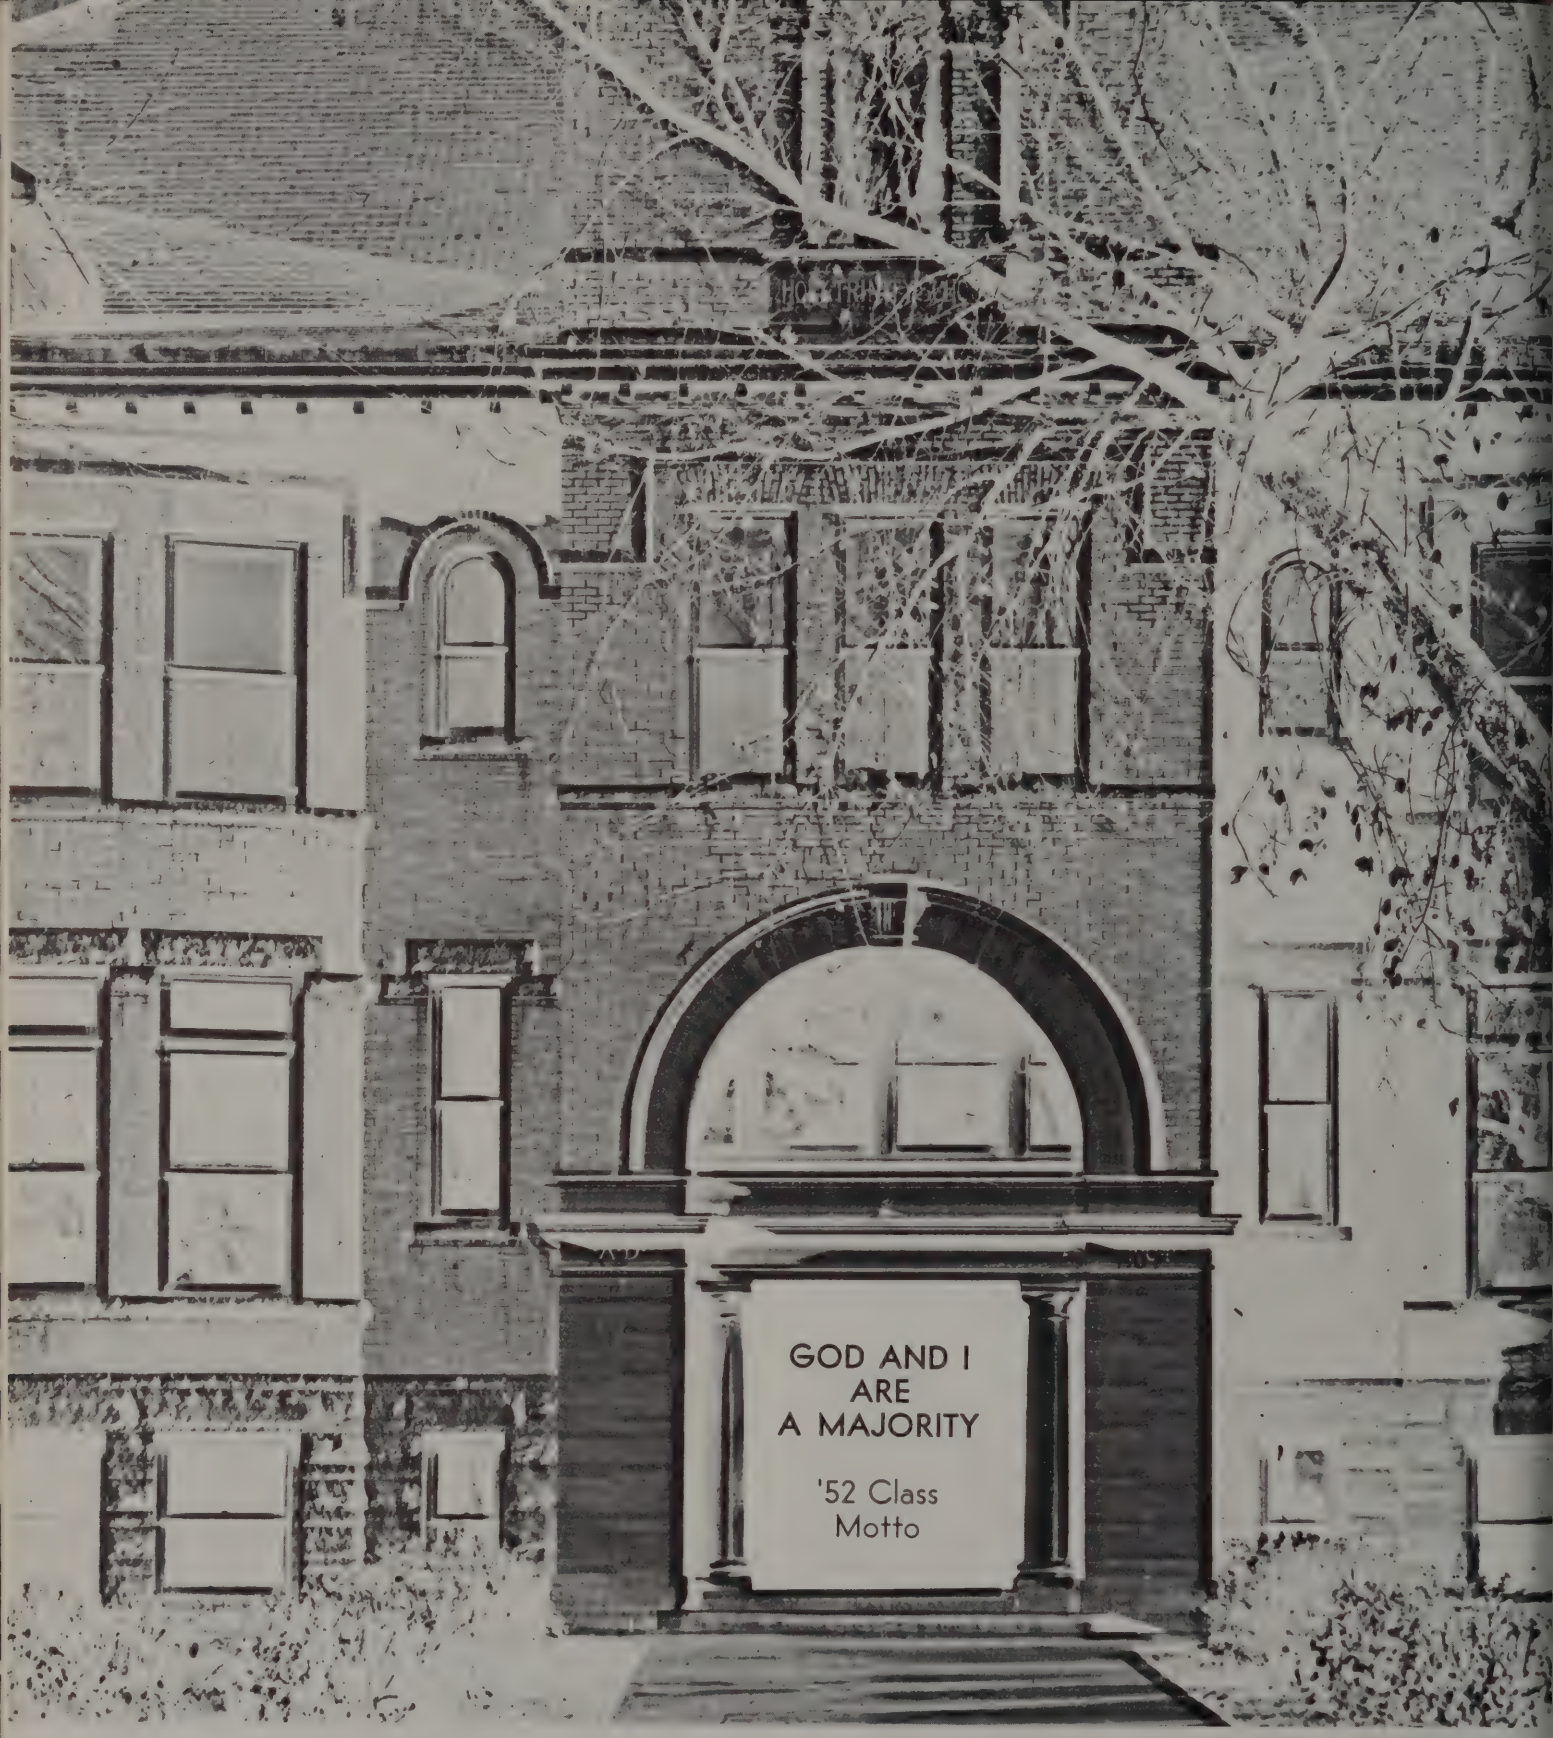
Prefect, Pete Grathwohl



Feast, and your halls are crowded
Fast, and the world goes by.
Forget and forgive—it helps you to live,
But no man can help you to die;
There's room in the hall of pleasure
For a long and lordly train,
But one by one, we must all march on
Through the narrow isle of pain.
